

Testimonials

I've been fortunate enough to partner with Jen Denys in her roles as:

- Principal of The Right Path Consulting Group
- Administrator for the London Chapter of HRPAO
- a Member of several Committees (Membership, Professional Development) of the London Chapter of HRPAO
- an active member of a pilot Mentoring program

No matter what the role, Jen always engages fully and brings to the table the same degree of expertise, energy and enthusiasm. She's committed to consulting with all stakeholders, facilitating creative solutions and executing with excellence.

I'm very proud to be one of her colleagues and recommend her to you without reservation.

L. Anderson, HR Professional

The Right Path Consulting Group headed by Jen Denys is in deed a great example of what we "being" professional is all about and at the same time keeping the "Human Element" front and center! Jen brings to the table energy and excitement for every project she takes on. At the same time, she understands that confidentiality in the workplace is a must.

J. Kainz, Health & Safety Professional

Jen has provided excellent service as co-ordinator of our mentoring program, Mentoring for Success. She has been able to launch, revise and expand the program within the constraints of the limited resources. Not only did Jen Denys get our mentoring program up and running quickly, meeting the initial goals and objectives, she has also brought to the Alumni Association Board of Directors a new vision of the goals and expectations of their mentoring program.

Jen is keenly aware that there is always room for improvement. She is proactive in her approach and realistic with her recommendations. She is truly committed to making Mentoring for Success all that it should be and more. Jen is forward thinking and has no shortage of ideas to improve on her past successes. It is a pleasure to work with her. She is enthusiastic, thoughtful and positive about her role within our organization.

K. Monahan, Alumni Officer, Fanshawe College

I applied for a senior management position at Sydenham Community Credit Union Ltd. where I was employed as a Branch Manager. With the assistance of The Right Path Consulting Group I was successful. I was very pleased with the résumé and cover letter that Jen Denys assisted me with and the interviewers commented how professionally they were done.

K. Boersma, Financial Professional

The Right Path Consulting Group helped us to save time and offered professional communication. Jen Denys is bright, intelligent and have great initiative and would recommend her to any other businesses looking for help with HR services. I certainly will use The Right Path Consulting Group in the future.

T. Gokstorp, Om Sweet Om Yoga Centre Inc.

The service we received was excellent and we look forward to future business. The Right Path Consulting Group provided assistance with staffing and an external source for employees to voice issues.

Duststop Air Filters Inc.

I would rate the service as excellent. It was very professional and informative. I would say the testing on my skills and interests and the following interpretations that matched my personality type benefited me the most. I was able to understand clearly the type of person I am, and the type of livelihood I should strive for. I would rate this service very high and have recommended it to many people. The value of receiving this service is well worth the time and effort put into it. The rewards from this experience have been uplifting and will be immeasurable for me going forward with my life in both a personal and professional way.

Career Counselling Client

I have been accepted to all of my programs. I am planning on going to university and living in residence there, so that should be exciting!

Thanks so much for your help, I feel a lot more confident about the choices I have made and what direction I want my life to go in now. I still can't believe I'm going to university.

Coaching Testimonials

I was working to put a marketing plan into place and Jen worked with me to set a structure that takes into consideration the other commitments I have in my life. I felt completely accepted. There were no judgments from Jen about my choices. She seems very solid and happy with her own choices and that is great foundation from which to coach others.

J. Tenzer, Coaching Client

Being coached by Jen Denys is great. She is attentive and gives her observations quickly but also thinks what would be best considering the outside abilities of the client. (Not making it too difficult, but working within the means of the client). We have completed the Myers-Briggs® personality test, the Strong Interest Inventory® and various other tests. We have discussed career exploration. Jen responds to emails and phone calls within a reasonable amount of time, within the time she has set out in the policies and procedures introduced by The Right Path Consulting Group.

M. McNeilly, Coaching Client

I had exceptional service. Jen had immediate time available and therefore did not have to wait weeks to meet. She was able to accommodate my schedule at the time. I liked that I received a synopsis of our meetings. Jen helped me get through a difficult time in life. She helped me move forward and make my life more rewarding.

C. Goldberg, Entrepreneur

Excellent service. Jen has a "can do" approach that really worked for me. Jen's ability to ask questions to elicit a specific and defined answer was extremely beneficial. Jen does great work with use of theories and concepts without the difficult terms. Jen made herself available and returned emails promptly.

Coaching Client

I found Jen very easy to talk with and open up to. Her manner is lovely and inviting. I also felt she was very genuine and actually really was celebrating my successes. I really felt like I was moving in the right direction and doing the right things when I spoke to Jen. She really helped me gain confidence with my clients too by helping me change my perspective.

A. Price, Motivating Mums Coaching

Jen encouraged me to confront the source of my tension. In doing this I knew I would need to explore parts of myself that needed to be developed. It would have been much easier just staying put with my perspective but the "road less travelled" proved to be most rewarding.

K. Crowhurst, Coaching Client

Our coaching sessions gave me a safe place to unleash my thoughts and feelings. And since Jen is a wonderful listener, I never felt rushed. Her energy enabled me to open up more and more. She was also very positive and respectful. I also found that when she did share, the timing was good and valuable.

M. Cera, Coaching Client

Jen's sessions enabled me to focus on specific issues and deal with them there and then rather than put them off. In some sessions I did some actual work which I wouldn't have done otherwise. She helped me to make some difficult decisions and work through various thought processes in a clear manner.

S. Wetherall-Abbott, Certified Professional Coach

The level of service exceeded my expectations. It was delivered with strong character, support and expertise that allowed an open rapport to be progressive. Jen Denys got me started on the right path, and kept me on in. She even laid out the next steps for me to continue on my own, with an open invitation to check back in with her as appropriate.
